Karnatak Law Society's Shri Vasant Rao Potdar Polytechnic, Belagavi

Where Skill-Sets and Knowledge
meets Aspirations...

The Karnatak Law Society took upon itself to encourage technical education for women by starting a polytechnic for women in the year 1992. In the year 1998, Smt. Ashabai Potdar of Belagavi donated a sizeable sum to the institution in the memory of her late husband and the institution was renamed as Shri Vasant Rao Potdar Polytechnic. In the year 2000 the Polytechnic was converted to Co-educational Institution. Diploma is offered by Board of Technical Examination, and affiliated to directorate of technical education, Bengaluru and the Institute is recognized and approved by AICTE, New Delhi.

Our Vision

To Train Students of Shri Vasant Rao Potdar Polytechnic, Belagavi to Become Creative and Innovative Engineers while imbibing in them Engineering Ethics and Professionalism, thus empowering them to serve mankind.

Our Mission

To Make Vasant Rao Potdar Polytechnic, Belagavi Stand Out as an Institution of Excellence in Building Technical Skills and to Create Individuals of Outstanding Character, Caliber and Entrepreneurial Skills.

News, 2021

Message from Chairman

At VPP our quest for excellence continues through various initiatives that will help our students place themselves on a career path, that does justice to their capacities and motivation. I look forward for your suggestions and ideas for raising the bar.

-Shri. U.N.Kalkundrikar

Message from Principal

To impart quality education and bridge the industry-institution gap, VPP has established a Centre of Excellence which runs programmes to cater the needs of the students. Memorandum of understanding with the industries is established which helps the students in persuading internship programmes.

To help students get admitted in reputed Engineering colleges, VPP conducts NATA and DCET classes for the students of final year. Your suggestions are most welcome.

Dear Readers

Greetings from the editorial team !!!

With the National Education Policy 2020 and its implementation on the forefront every educational institution has a big role to play in providing quality education. In 2015, world leaders agreed to 17 Global Goals (officially known as the Sustainable Development Goals or SDGs). It's now more than six years on, and we have more work than ever to do. These goals have the power to create a better world by 2030, by ending poverty, fighting inequality and addressing the urgency of climate change.

Sustainable Development Goal 4 (SDG4) is about quality education and is among the 17 Sustainable Development Goals established by the United Nations in September 2015. The full title of SDG 4 is "Ensure inclusive and equitable quality education and promote lifelong learning opportunities for all".

What is quality education and why is it a human right?

Quality education specifically entails issues such as appropriate skills development, gender parity, provision of relevant school infrastructure, equipment, educational materials and resources, scholarships or teaching force. The right to education is a fundamental human right and every individual, irrespective of race, gender, nationality, ethnic or social origin, religion or political preference, age or disability, is entitled to a free elementary education. Specific objectives in SDG 4 include providing more opportunities for technical and vocational training to youth and adults so they can get better jobs; ending inequality in educational opportunities between men and women; providing the right education for children with disabilities, indigenous people and victims of conflict; improving school facilities to provide a safe and positive environment for everyone; increasing the number of trained and qualified teachers and promoting education for sustainable development.

One year and more into the COVID-19 pandemic, close to half the world's students are still affected by partial or full school closures and it remains an uphill task of achieving the target of SDG4 by 2030.
